The Role

Please note this role requires you to pass Security Check clearance. Please click on the link for details.

We're recruiting for Senior Content Designers here at Justice Digital, Data and Science to be part of our warm and collaborative user-centred design team.

This role aligns against Senior Content Designer from the Government Digital and Data Framework

Our work in the content design profession at the Ministry of Justice is to improve the experiences of people who rely on our services, often at important or challenging moments in their lives. This is an opportunity to make a difference through content design, helping to create accessible, inclusive and user-centred services and guidance that meet people's needs.

You'll be welcomed into a thriving design community and work alongside multidisciplinary teams to solve complex problems and deliver high-quality services across a range of justice domains and GOV.UK, including areas such as Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority Digital, Legal Aid Agency Digital and Prisons Digital.

In addition to doing great work, we're creating a great place to work. We offer opportunities to learn and develop, support from experienced colleagues and the chance to contribute to a strong and growing content design community.

You ll receive a range of excellent benefits when you join our department, including:

A generous employer pension contribution of 28.97% through the Civil Service Pension Scheme.

25 days of annual leave, (increasing to 30 days once you have reached 5 years of service), plus 8 bank holidays and a privilege day for the King s birthday.

Flexible working arrangements including hybrid working, working part time or compressed hours. Designed to support a positive work life balance.

Employees are allocated 10% of their working time for personal and professional development.

A £1k per person learning budget is in place to support all our people, with access to best-in-class conferences and seminars, accreditation with professional bodies, fully funded vocational programmes and e-learning platforms.

Compassionate maternity, adoption, and shared parental leave policies, with up to 26 weeks leave at full pay, 13 weeks with partial pay, and 13 weeks further leave. And maternity support/paternity leave at full pay for 2 weeks, too!

You can find more details of the Benefits we offer here. To help picture your life at MoJ Justice Digital, Data and Science please take a look at our blog.

Key Responsibilities:

Create content and develop strategies to help digital services and platforms meet user needs and business objectives

Help teams manage and visualise outcomes, define scope and agree on the best processes to follow

Advise teams on how to create great content, assure the quality of content from more junior colleagues and guide their development

Monitor and improve content based on user feedback, research and data

Work effectively with subject matter experts, stakeholders and partners to support commitments while delivering user-led services

Ensure all content is user-focused, accurate and uses relevant design patterns, components and styles; this includes establishing and contributing to styles and patterns

Take an overall perspective on business issues, wider implications and long-term impact, and how content can help solve challenges

Support the wider content community with peer reviews, content audits, knowledge management and benchmarking

If this feels like an exciting challenge, something you are enthusiastic about, and want to join our team please read on and apply!

Person Specification

Essential

Proven experience as a content designer, able to create and iterate clear, accessible user-centred content that communicates complex issues

Experience working collaboratively in fast-paced, multidisciplinary agile teams

Experience developing content strategies or identifying content solutions to meet user needs and business objectives

Able to persuade, influence, network and work collaboratively with stakeholders and business leads, with experience presenting content concepts, propositions and deliverables

An understanding of end-to-end journeys, how content is affected and consistency maintained throughout

Experience of using data and insights to make design decisions and clearly explain how decisions have been made

Experience mentoring, coaching and developing junior or mid-weight content designers, with the ability to support career growth and maintain high-quality content standards across the team

Willingness to be assessed against the requirements for SC clearance.

We welcome the unique contribution diverse applicants bring and do not discriminate based on culture, ethnicity, race, nationality or national origin, age, sex, gender identity or expression, religion or belief, disability status, sexual orientation, educational or social background or any other factor.

Our values are Purpose, Humanity Openness and Together. Find out more here about how we celebrate diversity and an inclusive culture in our workplace.

The Civil Service is committed to attract, retain and invest in talent wherever it is found. To learn more please see the Civil Service People Plan and the Civil Service D&I Strategy.

Salary Information

Base salary for this role is from National: £58,511 - £65,329 and London: £63,343 - £70,725

New entrants to the Civil Service joining the MoJ are expected to start at the minimum of the pay band.

Existing Civil Servants moving on a level transfer will retain their current base salary or move to the minimum of the pay band for the role, whichever is higher.

Existing Civil Servants who are promoted will either move to the bottom of the new grade's pay band or receive a 10% uplift, whichever provides the greater increase.

Selection process details

How to Apply

In Justice Digital, Data and Science, we recruit using a combination of the Government Digital and Data Profession Capability and Success Profiles Frameworks. We shall assess a combination of your Technical skills, Experience and Behaviours during the assessment process.

Stage 1 - Application and sift:

To apply for this position, you must submit the following as part of your application

A CV detailing your career history (including any relevant qualifications). Your CV will be assessed against the essential criteria outlined within the Person Specification of this advert.

A Personal Statement (no more than 750 words) which should outline your experience and skills, giving clear examples of work undertaken. It should specifically address the following 3 criteria listed below, using a separate paragraph for each.

1. Proven experience as a content designer, able to create and iterate clear, accessible user-centred content that communicates complex issues

2. Experience working collaboratively in fast-paced, multidisciplinary agile teams
3. Able to persuade, influence, network and work collaboratively with stakeholders and business leads, with experience presenting content concepts, propositions and deliverables

A diverse sift panel will review the information in your CV and Personal Statement to assess the sift criteria specified above. We operate an anonymous shortlisting process. Please ensure your CV and Personal Statement do not include your name or any other identifying details.

Should we receive a high volume of applications, a pre-sift based on 'Proven experience as a content designer, able to create and iterate clear, accessible user-centred content that communicates complex issues' will be conducted before the sift.

Please access the following link for guidance on how to apply - Application Guidance

Stage 2 - Interviews:

Successful candidates who meet the required standard will then be invited to a panel interview held via Microsoft Teams. At interview stage, you will be assessed against the following Success Profile elements - Technical skills, Experience and the following Behaviours:

Communicating and Influencing

Developing Self and Others

Managing a Quality Service

Changing and improving

As part of your interview, you will be asked to deliver a presentation that assesses your experience. Further details will be provided if successful at sift.

Appointments are made strictly in merit order. In the event that two or more candidates receive identical interview scores, the communicating and influencing behaviour will be applied as the primary lead criterion to determine the final merit order.

Should you be unsuccessful in the role that you have applied for but demonstrate the capability for a role at a lower level, we reserve the right to discuss this opportunity with you and offer you the position without needing a further application.

A reserve list may be held for up to 12 months, from which further appointments may be made.

Feedback will only be provided if you attend an interview or assessment.

Security

Successful candidates must undergo a basic (or equivalent) criminal record check.

Successful candidates must meet the security requirements before they can be appointed. The level of security needed is security check \(opens in a new window\).

See our vetting charter \(opens in a new window\).

People working with government assets must complete baseline personnel security standard \(opens in new window\) checks.

Nationality requirements

This job is broadly open to the following groups:

UK nationals

nationals of the Republic of Ireland

nationals of Commonwealth countries who have the right to work in the UK

nationals of the EU, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein and family members of those nationalities with settled or pre-settled status under the European Union Settlement Scheme \(EUSS\) \(opens in a new window\)

nationals of the EU, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein and family members of those nationalities who have made a valid application for settled or pre-settled status under the European Union Settlement Scheme (EUSS)

individuals with limited leave to remain or indefinite leave to remain who were eligible to apply for EUSS on or before 31 December 2020

Turkish nationals, and certain family members of Turkish nationals, who have accrued the right to work in the Civil Service

Further information on nationality requirements \(opens in a new window\)

Working for the Civil Service

The Civil Service Code \(opens in a new window\) sets out the standards of behaviour expected of civil servants.

We recruit by merit on the basis of fair and open competition, as outlined in the Civil Service Commission's recruitment principles \(opens in a new window\).

The Civil Service embraces diversity and promotes equal opportunities. As such, we run a Disability Confident Scheme (DCS) for candidates with disabilities who meet the minimum selection criteria.

Diversity and Inclusion

The Civil Service is committed to attract, retain and invest in talent wherever it is found. To learn more please see the Civil Service People Plan \(opens in a new window\) and the Civil Service Diversity and Inclusion Strategy \(opens in a new window\).
