The Crown Prosecution Service is a Disability Confident employer and all reasonable adjustments are considered in line with Equality Act of 2010.

About the job

Job summary

This is an exciting time to join the Business Intelligence and Systems Team at the Crown Prosecution Service. We are looking for people who enjoy using data to derive insights and sharing those by creating compelling visualisations. The role involves transforming complex HR, Finance and other datasets, into understandable and actionable insights.

As a BI Visualisation Developer you work with others both within the team and other stakeholders, to identify areas for improvement in the reporting catalogue and simplify overall reporting processes, while using visualisation technologies to increase efficiency. You adopt a positive approach to keeping your own and your team s efforts focused on the top priorities, ensuring appropriate resources are available for your team whether that be technology, support for training or appropriate work plans.

You also regularly monitor your own and team s work against milestones and act promptly to reassess workloads and priorities when there are conflicting demands to maintain performance. You demonstrate leadership by ensuring colleagues and stakeholders have a clear understanding of objectives, activities and timeframes and encourage joined up teamwork within own Business Intelligence team and across other groups, including Finance and HR Business Partners and other corporate and operational functions.

The Crown Prosecution Service is based in England and Wales. If you re applying for this role and live in Scotland or Northern Ireland, you must let us know when accepting this offer as you need permission to work from your home address if hybrid working is part of your role. There s no guarantee that we will grant this approval.

You must be aged 16 or over at the point of starting in this role. The expected start date is approximately 8 12 weeks after the application closing date. You are expected to commence employment as soon as possible following the expiry of your notice period. Requests for significantly later start dates may not be accommodated.

You must complete and pass your Civil Service tests by 23:55 on 24th October 2026 to be able to complete an application for this role.

As part of this role, you are expected to undertake direct line management responsibilities.

Job description

Your roles and responsibilities include:

- supporting the Business Intelligence and Systems Team and senior CPS leadership, by developing interactive, user-friendly, visual representations of data using modern visualisation tools like Power BI.
- translate business needs into technical specifications and create visualisations and reports while continuously adapting to emerging technologies and methodologies in data visualisation
- support the business by providing expert advice on the ongoing development of the reporting capabilities of corporate ERP/HCM and planning systems both within and outside of the CPS
- manage the staff and work of reporting and systems specialists within the Business Intelligence and Systems Team, provide expert advice and guidance to colleagues both within and outside of CPS and will make sure standards and targets within Service Level Agreements are met

ensuring correct procedures are in place for critical finance and HR functions

The role involves analysing data and processes, troubleshooting, improving existing BI systems, and ensuring the accuracy and efficiency of data-driven solutions.

Why we work for the Crown Prosecution Service

The Crown Prosecution Service is passionate about ensuring that we're a top performing organisation and a great place to work. We're a committed equal opportunities employer, creating a culture where you can bring your whole self to work, and individuality is truly appreciated.

This culture of inclusion is underpinned by our staff networks covering disability, faith and belief, LGBTQI+, race, social mobility alongside our mental health first aiders programme and wellbeing sessions.

The Crown Prosecution Service commits to offer its employees the following experience.

- You can do impactful, purposeful work that s making a difference to your local communities.
- You are able to learn and grow, with access to the right opportunities and resources.
- We care about your wellbeing.
- We want you to feel valued, trusted and included.

We also offer the following range of benefits:

- Civil Service contributory pension of up to 28.9%
- 25 days leave, increasing to 30 days after 5 years
- £350 each year to spend on personal development
- lawyer training programme for all new prosecutors
- an extra privilege day to mark the King's birthday
- competitive maternity, paternity and parental leave
- flexible working including flexitime, and a family friendly approach to work
- Cycle2Work scheme, employee savings.

Diversity at the Crown Prosecution Service is about inclusion, embracing differences and ensuring our workforce truly reflects the communities we serve. We want you to feel that you belong and can thrive, whatever your background, identity or culture. As a Disability Confident employer, we're happy to support requests for reasonable adjustments and improve your recruitment experience. If you'd like any reasonable adjustments made to our recruitment process, let us know within your application or contact Daisy.gabriel1@cps.gov.uk

The Crown Prosecution Service has fixed rates for its Higher Executive Officer grade a developing rate (the starting salary) and a spot rate (the maximum salary). Applicants typically join us on the developing rate and, after completing a 18-month development period, move to the spot rate this is subject to your line manager confirming that you re performing the role to a satisfactory standard.

If you re joining the Crown Prosecution Service on a lateral transfer from another government department, you should contact us about the impact on your salary and the implications of any time you ve already spent at that grade before applying or accepting an employment offer. Your salary may be adjusted if your location changes when you join us. This adjustment also takes into account any existing allowances that may have previously been consolidated into your basic pay there s no guarantee that you can retain these when you transfer.

We want to ensure our employees can thrive at work and home and offer a range of support to achieve a balance. This includes flexibility of working hours, flexibility to support caring responsibilities and a flexible approach to deployment. We offer a hybrid working policy. You must spend at least 40% of your contracted hours over a four-week period at court, in an office or another official workplace depending on business need and the kind of work you're doing.

The Crown Prosecution Service also has a range of development programmes to support all aspiring, new and experienced managers with developing the skills, behaviours and knowledge to build their confidence and capability. Our Manager Induction Programme is mandatory for all newly appointed managers. This is a fantastic opportunity to support all our new Crown Prosecution Service managers with the tools required to perform effectively in their roles.

Things you need to know

Artificial intelligence

Artificial intelligence can be a useful tool to support your application, however, all examples and statements provided must be truthful, factually accurate and taken directly from your own experience. Where plagiarism has been identified (presenting the ideas and experiences of others, or generated by artificial intelligence, as your own) applications may be withdrawn and internal candidates may be subject to disciplinary action. Please see our candidate guidance (opens in a new window) for more information on appropriate and inappropriate use.

Selection process details

This vacancy is using Success Profiles (opens in a new window), and will assess your Behaviours, Strengths and Experience.

Recruitment process

The recruitment process consists of an online application, online test and interview.

Behaviours

You are asked to complete a statement of no more than 250 words for each of the following behaviours, setting out how you consider your personal skills, qualities and experience match the specified behaviours and requirements:

1. changing and improving - lead behvaiour
2. leadership
3. working together
4. delivering at pace

In addition, you need to demonstrate the following technical skills required for this role:

advanced Excel skills

You also need to demonstrate the Crown Prosecution Service or Civil Service values.

The panel has the right to assess the lead behaviour changing and improving first. If the standard on this behaviour isn t met, the other behaviours won t be considered and your application won t progress. The panel also has the right to raise the minimum standard pass mark. The panel may also refer to the lead behaviour at the interview stage to determine merit order.

CV

You re not required to upload your CV. However, when submitting your application there is a CV section . You are required to provide information about your employment and/or academic history for the past three years. The CV section will be used as supporting evidence, it won t be assessed.

It s your responsibility to provide the specified information in the requested format to ensure that you're considered for the post.

If you're unable to cover three years through employment or academic history, you must provide a character reference for clearance purposes.

Interview

The interviews are expected to take place on week commencing 16 November and week commencing 23 November 2026.

Your interview takes place online through Microsoft Teams. A member of our recruitment team will be in touch with guidance. If you have any queries about this, contact Daisy.gabriel1@cps.gov.uk

You should keep this week free or notify us if you're not available. We'll make every effort to accommodate your date preferences but we can't guarantee it.

We use behaviours to help us understand your experience, to see if you're a good fit for the role. You are assessed against EO level in the Civil Service success profiles behaviours framework. We are assessing 4 behaviours at interview stage:

1. changing and improving interview
2. leadership interview
3. working together interview
4. delivering at pace interview

Essential Experience - assessed at interview.

Strengths

Strengths are tested at interview stage - the strengths tested are not shared before the interview.

Online tests

Before submitting your application, you re invited to complete an online numerical reasoning test. You must successfully complete the test to progress to the next stage. Please complete the online test as soon as possible we recommend within 24-48 hours. The closing date for the test is 24th October 2026.

We send you an invitation to take the test and provide full instructions about how to complete it. The test can t be taken on mobile phones or tablets.

For more guidance about the online Civil Service tests, please see the GOV.UK website: Civil Service online tests - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)

Other

This is a full-time post. We do consider requests for flexible, part-time working and job share, always considering the operational needs of the department.

Please note that the CPS is unable to offer visa sponsorship. If you require visa sponsorship to work in the UK, you will not meet the eligibility criteria for this role.

Clearance

If successful, you are required to secure a Security Check clearance, for which you must have a current valid UK address.

If successfully appointed, we ask you to complete a character enquiry form, and nationality and immigration questionnaire, and national security vetting form.

If you're a Crown Prosecution Service member of staff, you won t need to do a Disclosure and Barring Service check as you already hold this clearance.

The job you re applying for is covered by Article 3(a) of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975, consequently Section 4(2) of that Act doesn t apply. You re required to disclose all previous convictions and cautions including spent convictions. Failing to make a full declaration will result in withdrawing your offer of employment if our checks reveal convictions that haven t been disclosed.

To be cleared to Security Check clearance level, you have to be able to meet the residency requirement in the Cabinet Office guidance. For the Crown Prosecution Service, this is three years within the last five years.

Reserve list

If you're recommended by the selection panel but not appointed to the current vacancy, you re put on a reserve list for 12 months. You may be offered another BI Visualisation Developer post in the CPS if a vacancy comes up during this period. We may also approach candidates on the waiting list to fill other roles that require similar knowledge and experience.
