About the job

Job summary

Working in the Department's AI Centre of Excellence (CoE) within our Digital and Technology Directorate, you will play a key role in helping us deliver new and innovative AI-based applications which meet the needs of our users and the business. You will work as part of a supportive multidisciplinary team focussed on delivering high quality products aligned with the objectives of the programme.

The purpose of the AI CoE is to:

- Lead AI adoption across the Department and engage with all business areas, ensuring central oversight.

- Develop and maintain the core technologies and platforms for AI.

- Guide and support teams to develop and optimise new AI solutions and integrate them with service delivery.

- Deliver new AI projects and lead discovery of new tools.

- Build skills and capability for the effective development and use of AI technologies.

Working with senior colleagues, you will lead an agile team on the design, build and support of scalable, secure and high-quality user-centric AI-based services focussing on iterative delivery at pace. You will innovate to radically transform how public services are delivered and improved.

Job description

As a Senior Software Developer with AI experience, you will:

Lead the development of AI-powered features, ensuring solutions are robust, scalable, and aligned with departmental standards.

Develop software within the C# .NET technology stack using other languages including Python for AI components as required.

Build automated tests to support our continuous deployment processes.

Create and sustain modern development standards, practices and techniques for our development community.

Champion best practices in responsible AI, including model evaluation, monitoring, and ethical use of data.

Work with the development community to ensure we build sustainable digital products.

Support the ongoing optimisation of automated integration processes.

Support, coach and mentor less experienced developers and help them integrate into teams.

Transform government into a modern, agile development centre by embedding practices such as test-driven development, continuous integration & delivery.

Triage and lead support of software issues projects you are working on.

Support sharing of methods and technologies across teams, government, and the industry by participating in and organising community events.

Person specification

Essential Criteria

Strong practical experience developing scalable applications using C# .NET and modern web technologies (HTML, CSS, JavaScript).

Experience designing, developing and integrating production-grade AI/ML solutions using Python within C# .NET ecosystems including integrating AI components into APIs or enterprise services.

Proven experience in data engineering for AI, including building and managing ETL pipelines, data validation, and preparing data for machine learning and AI workloads.

Experience applying MLOps and LLMOps practices, including model and prompt deployment, monitoring, evaluation, governance and responsible AI principles.

Strong experience of modern software development practices, including Test-Driven Development, CI/CD, DevOps, and applying design principles e.g., SOLID, design patterns.

Strong understanding of web application security and experience applying secure-by-design principles.

Experience sharing knowledge, coaching others, and contributing to inclusive, multidisciplinary teams.

Behaviours

We'll assess you against these behaviours during the selection process:

Changing and Improving

Benefits

Alongside your salary of £58,185, Department for Education contributes £16,856 towards you being a member of the Civil Service Defined Benefit Pension scheme. Find out what benefits a Civil Service Pension provides.

Applicants currently holding a permanent post in the Civil Service should note that, if successful, their salary on appointment would be determined by the Department's transfer / promotion policies.

As a member of the DfE, you will be entitled to join the highly competitive Civil Service Pension Scheme, which many experts agree is one of the most generous in the UK.

You will have 25 days leave, increasing by 1 day every year to a maximum of 30 days after five years' service. In addition, all staff receive the King's Birthday privilege holiday and 8 days' bank and public holidays.

We offer flexible working arrangements, such as job sharing, term-time working, flexi-time and compressed hours.

Most DfE employees will be working a hybrid pattern, spending at least 60% of their time in an office or work setting. Changes to these working arrangements are available in exceptional circumstances but must be agreed with the line manager and in line with the requirements of the role.

Travel to your primary office location will not be paid for by DfE, but costs for travel to an office which is not your main location will be covered.

As an organisation, which exists to support education and lifelong learning, we offer our staff excellent professional development opportunities.

Things you need to know

Artificial intelligence

Artificial intelligence can be a useful tool to support your application, however, all examples and statements provided must be truthful, factually accurate and taken directly from your own experience. Where plagiarism has been identified (presenting the ideas and experiences of others, or generated by artificial intelligence, as your own) applications may be withdrawn and internal candidates may be subject to disciplinary action. Please see our candidate guidance \(opens in a new window\) for more information on appropriate and inappropriate use.

Selection process details

This vacancy is using Success Profiles \(opens in a new window\), and will assess your Behaviours and Experience.

Application

At application you will be asked to provide your CV and a statement of suitability.

Your CV should include details of previous roles held and responsibilities / previous skills and experience.

Your statement of suitability (maximum 1000 words) should demonstrate how you meet the essential criteria listed in the person specification section above.

Your CV and statement will be assessed together against the listed essential criteria.

To confirm, the maximum word count for the personal statement/ statement of suitability is 1000. Please adhere to this limit as anything over 1000 words will not be taken into account.

You will also be required to provide a 250-word example demonstrating how you meet the behaviour listed above.

Interview:

Longlisted candidates will be invited to attend an interview typically involving a commitment of up to 1 hour.

At interview you will be asked questions to assess your experience in line with the essential criteria listed above. You will also be asked questions around the behaviour listed in the advert.

Interviews will be on MS teams, which may be remote or from a DfE office - we will confirm which when you are invited to an interview.

Feedback

Feedback will only be provided if you attend an interview.

Timing

We expect to sift in week commencing 6 July 2026.

Interviews will likely take place in the weeks commencing 13 and 20 July 2025.

Once a provisional offer has been made, you will be invited to participate in a capability assessment to determine the value of the CBP allowance we can offer you. The assessment compares your skills against the advertised role described in DfE's local Software Development Capability Framework, which is based on the Government Digital and Data Profession Capability Framework.

Subject to your availability, we will aim to conduct the capability assessment and confirm the allowance offer to you within a week of the provisional offer being made.

This is a discretionary non-consolidated, non-pensionable allowance which, if awarded, is attached to the post. The value of the allowance is based on the outcome of a capability assessment and is reviewed annually. Allowance values range up to £19,400, with the highest values reserved for candidates whose capability is above the expected level for all of the skills.

If applicants are not appointable at this grade, they may be considered for positions at the grade below.

Other Information

Interviews may be via Microsoft teams or face to face; the vacancy manager will confirm prior to the Interview.

In your application, please don't include personal information that identifies you.

This means we can recruit based on your knowledge and skills, and not background, gender or ethnicity - it's called name blind recruitment (opens in a new window).

Please ensure that you remove from your application, all references to your:

name/title

educational institutions

gender

email address

postal address

phone number

nationality/immigration status

We reserve the right to raise the minimum pass mark in the event of a high volume or strong field of candidates.

Please be aware that this role can only be worked in the UK from the location options provided and not from overseas.

The government is committed to supporting apprenticeships, enabling people to learn and progress in a role whilst earning. We want to monitor the number of people who have completed apprenticeships who are now applying to progress further in their career and are asking this question to all candidates, on all vacancies. You will be asked a question as part of the application process about any previous apprenticeships you have completed. Your response to this question will not affect your application and it is not a requirement of the role to have completed a previous apprenticeship.

If successful and transferring from another Government Department a criminal record check maybe carried out.

In order to process applications without delay, we will be sending a Criminal Record Check to Disclosure and Barring Service on your behalf. However, we recognise in exceptional circumstance some candidates will want to send their completed forms direct. If you will be doing this, please advise Department of Education of your intention by emailing Pre-Employment.Checks.DFE@education.gov.uk stating the job reference number in the subject heading.

Department for Education do not cover the cost of travel to your interview/ assessment unless otherwise stated.

A reserve list may be held for a period of 12 months from which further appointments can be made.

Candidates will be posted in merit order based upon location preference. Where more than one location is advertised you will be asked to state your preferred location.

New entrants are expected to join on the minimum of the pay band.

Applicants who are successful at interview will be, as part of pre-employment screening subject to a check on the Internal Fraud Database (IFD). This check will provide information about employees who have been dismissed for fraud or dishonesty offences. This check also applies to employees who resign or otherwise leave before being dismissed for fraud or dishonesty had their employment continued. Any applicant's details held on the IFD will be refused employment.

Terms and conditions of candidates transferring from ALBs and NDPBs

Bodies that are not accredited by the Civil Service Commission and are not able to advertise at Across Government on Civil Service jobs will be treated as external new starters and will come into DfE on modernised terms and conditions with a salary at the band minimum.

Bodies that are accredited by the Civil Service Commission but do not have civil service status will be offered modernised terms and will not have continuous service recognised for leave or sickness benefits. Salaries should be offered at band minimum, but there is some flexibility where this would cause a detriment to the individual.

Bodies that are accredited by the Civil Service Commission and do have Civil Service status will be treated as OGD transfers. Staff appointed on lateral transfer will move on to pre-modernised DfE terms (unless they were on modernised terms in their previous organisation). Staff appointed on promotion will move on to modernised DfE terms. Staff will transfer over on their existing salary (on lateral transfer) and any pay above the DfE pay band maximum will be paid as a mark time allowance. Staff moving on promotion will have their salaries calculated using the principles set out in the attached OGD transfer supplementary information.

Reasonable adjustment

If a person with disabilities is put at a substantial disadvantage compared to a non-disabled person, we have a duty to make reasonable changes to our processes. If you need a change to be made so that you can make your application, you should:

Contact Department of Education via centralrecruitment.operations@education.gov.uk soon as possible before the closing date to discuss your needs.

Complete the Assistance required section in the Additional requirements page of your application form to tell us what changes or help you might need further on in the recruitment process. For instance, you may need wheelchair access at interview, or if you're deaf, a Language Service Professional.

Please refer to the attached Reasonable Adjustments Guide 05_2025 accessible version at the bottom of the advert, for further information.

Childcare Vouchers

Any move to Department for Education (DfE) will mean you will no longer be able to carry on claiming childcare vouchers. This includes moves between government departments. You may however be eligible for other government schemes, including Tax-Free Childcare. Determine your eligibility at <https://www.childcarechoices.gov.uk/>

Feedback will only be provided if you attend an interview or assessment.

Security

Successful candidates must undergo a criminal record check.

People working with government assets must complete baseline personnel security standard \(opens in new window\) checks.
