We offer a hybrid working model, allowing for a balance between remote work and time spent in your local office. Office locations can be found ON THIS MAP

Please note that unless you are an existing member of staff at Justice Digital, Data and Science, the only London location being recruited to is 10 South Colonnade, E14 4PU. We are no longer recruiting to 102 Petty France, SW1H 9AJ.

The Role

We're recruiting for a Diary Manager here at Justice Digital, Data and Science to be part of our warm and collaborative central digital team

The Cross Justice, Victims and Vulnerability team works across the Ministry of Justice and wider justice system to improve outcomes for victims, vulnerable people and those who interact with justice services. We bring together policy, operational delivery, analysis and stakeholder engagement to drive reform across a complex and high-profile portfolio.

Our work spans multiple parts of the justice system and requires close collaboration with agencies, operational partners and other government departments. We focus on ensuring that services are effective, accessible and centred on the needs of the people who use them.

As a team, we are committed to:

- Improving outcomes for victims and vulnerable people by shaping policy and supporting effective delivery across the justice system.

- Working across organisational boundaries to bring together partners, expertise and evidence to address complex cross-cutting challenges.

- Driving continuous improvement by identifying opportunities to make services more efficient, responsive and user-focused.

- Supporting ministers and senior leaders with high-quality advice, insight and coordination to deliver government priorities.

Building diverse, inclusive and supportive teams that reflect the communities we serve and create an environment where people can do their best work.

We are a collaborative and ambitious team that values integrity, kindness and inclusion, and we are looking for people who want to make a meaningful difference to the lives of those who rely on the justice system.

You can find more details of the Benefits we offer here. To help picture your life at MoJ Justice Digital, Data and Science please take a look at our blog.

Key Responsibilities:

The Diary Manager plays a vital role in supporting the smooth and effective running of the Cross Justice, Victims and Vulnerability team. Reporting into the Deputy Director, you will be at the heart of a busy and high-profile area, helping to coordinate priorities across a complex portfolio that spans justice policy, service delivery and cross-government partnerships.

Working in the Deputy Director's office is fast-paced, varied and rewarding. You will gain exposure to senior leaders across the Ministry of Justice, partner organisations and government departments, while developing a strong understanding of how strategic priorities are translated into delivery.

This is a highly visible role that requires excellent judgement, organisation and relationship-building skills. You will work closely with colleagues across the department and a network of business support professionals to ensure the Deputy Director's time is focused on the highest priorities and that the office runs efficiently and effectively.

In this role, you will:

Manage the Deputy Director's diary, ensuring time is prioritised effectively and aligned to strategic objectives.

Coordinate meetings, resolving competing demands and ensuring the Deputy Director is able to focus on priority issues and commitments.

Anticipate future requirements through proactive forward planning and effective diary management.

Prepare briefing packs, agendas and supporting materials to ensure the Deputy Director is fully prepared for meetings, events and engagements.

Arrange travel, accommodation and logistics for visits, stakeholder engagements and events.

Organise meeting rooms and virtual meeting arrangements across the MoJ estate and with external partners.

Support meetings by recording key discussions, decisions and actions where required.

Coordinate workshops, leadership events and team engagements on behalf of the Deputy Director.

Maintain effective office systems, records and processes to support efficient ways of working.

Build and maintain strong working relationships across the department and with key stakeholders.

Work closely with the wider leadership team and business support network to coordinate priorities, activities and communications across the portfolio.

This is an excellent opportunity for someone who enjoys working in a fast-moving environment, takes pride in being highly organised, and wants to play a key role in supporting senior leadership and delivering positive outcomes across the justice system.

If you're enthusiastic about providing exceptional support, building strong relationships and helping a senior leader make the greatest impact possible, we'd love to hear from you.

Person Specification

Essential
