Person Specification

Essential

Agile and Lean Practices You have deep knowledge and experience of working with a range of Agile and Lean tools and techniques, with an ability to coach within and outside of the team. You are a recognised expert who advocates these approaches, continuously reflecting and challenging teams. You should be able to provide evidence of applying these practices in a digital environment.

Planning You are able to lead a continual planning process in a very complex environment. You identify dependencies in plans across services and coordinate delivery, managing relationships between different people within and across teams. You coach other teams as the central point of expertise and maintain the cadence of delivery.

Maintaining Delivery Momentum You have a proven track record of actively addressing the most complicated risks and identifying innovative ways to unblock issues, managing dependencies across teams, departments or government as a whole, as well as driving teams and setting the pace, and ensuring teams are working towards delivery commitments.

Making the Process Work Demonstrable ability to focus on the outcome, challenge and improve disproportionate organisational processes where it impacts the pace of the team. Able to identify what works best for the team and when to utilise certain processes. Understands that all steps in a process must add value. Able to influence and make positive changes to the organisation.

Leadership Promote diversity, inclusion and equality of opportunity, respecting difference and external experience. Welcome and respond to views and challenges from others, despite any conflicting pressures to ignore or give in to them. Stand by, promote or defend your own and your team's actions and decisions where needed seek out shared interests beyond your own area of responsibility, understanding the extent of the impact actions have on the organisation. Inspire and motivate teams to be fully engaged in their work and dedicated to their role.

Making Effective Decisions Clarify your own understanding and stakeholder needs and expectations, before making decisions. Ensure decision making happens at the right level, not allowing unnecessary bureaucracy to hinder delivery. Encourage both innovative suggestions and challenge from others, to inform decision making. Analyse and accurately interpret data from various sources to support decisions. Find the best option by identifying positives, negatives, risks and implications. Present reasonable conclusions from a wide range of complex and sometimes incomplete evidence. Make decisions confidently even when details are unclear or if they prove to be unpopular.

Willingness to be assessed against the requirements for SC clearance

We welcome the unique contribution diverse applicants bring and do not discriminate based on culture, ethnicity, race, nationality or national origin, age, sex, gender identity or expression, religion or belief, disability status, sexual orientation, educational or social background or any other factor.
