About the job

Job summary

The Government Digital Service (GDS) is the digital centre of government. We are responsible for setting, leading and delivering the vision for a modern digital government.

Our priorities are to drive a modern digital government, by:

1. joining up public sector services
2. harnessing the power of AI for the public good
3. strengthening and extending our digital and data public infrastructure
4. elevating leadership and investing in talent
5. funding for outcomes and procuring for growth and innovation
6. committing to transparency and driving accountability

We are home to the Incubator for Artificial Intelligence (I.AI), the world-leading GOV.UK and at the forefront of coordinating the UK's geospatial strategy and activity. We lead the Government Digital and Data function and champion the work of digital teams across government.

We're part of the Department for Science, Innovation and Technology (DSIT) and employ more than 1,000 people all over the UK, with hubs in Manchester, London and Bristol.

The Government Digital Service is where talent translates into impact. From your first day, you'll be working with some of the world's most highly-skilled digital professionals, all contributing their knowledge to make change on a national scale.

Join us for rewarding work that makes a difference across the UK. You'll solve some of the nation's highest-priority digital challenges, helping millions of people access services they need

Job description

As a Digital Portfolio Analyst, you will support the effective oversight of a diverse portfolio of digital programmes and projects, helping teams and leaders understand progress, risks and priorities. You will collect, analyse and report on delivery information, producing clear and accurate documentation such as performance reports, briefing papers and governance materials that support informed decision-making and accountability.

This role is well suited to someone who enjoys working across teams in a fast-moving and sometimes ambiguous environment. You will support portfolio governance and assurance processes, help identify and manage risks and issues, and contribute to improving portfolio tools, standards and ways of working. Working closely with delivery teams, senior portfolio colleagues and stakeholders across GDS and DSIT, you will play an active role in promoting good practice and supporting the portfolio team to ensure we deliver a high-quality service that meets GDS strategic outcomes.

As a Digital Portfolio Analyst you will:

- monitor and report delivery progress on all portfolio items and produce performance reporting against milestones and outcomes

- manage delivery risks and issues across the portfolio of digital programmes/projects, identifying, mitigating, and escalating as appropriate to safeguard delivery outcomes

- produce key documentation and reports, including briefing papers, planning data, and governance materials to support programme performance and accountability

- support governance and assurance and help teams to follow governance and delivery processes

- support the prioritisation of a group of projects and programmes

- support more senior portfolio managers and leadership in making improvements

- act as advocate for PMO functions across the business, promoting the PMO and associated best practice within the business and the wider DSIT

- identify, develop and share best practice on processes, tools and templates and support with its implementation and roll out to other teams

Person specification

We're interested in people who:

can produce key documentation and reports - including briefing papers, planning data, and governance materials to support programme performance and accountability

have experience and working knowledge of programme and project planning have experience of collecting and analysing data, finding insights and evidence, using analytical skills to inform decisions on complex issues and delivering more effective outcomes can support work cross-functionally to design and implement business plans that support long-term strategic objectives.

have experience working on projects in ambiguous and flexible environments are able to provide support to the Portfolio team, reviewing and recommending actions for tools, standards and methodologies.

can support the implementation and adoption of new tools and frameworks such as OKRs across GDS are able to operate in an agile environment and support multi-functional team requirements.

Benefits

Alongside your salary of £44,620, Government Digital Service contributes £12,926 towards you being a member of the Civil Service Defined Benefit Pension scheme. Find out what benefits a Civil Service Pension provides.

There are many benefits of working at GDS, including:

flexible hybrid working with flexi-time and the option to work part-time or condensed hours

a Civil Service Pension with an average employer contribution of 28.97%

25 days of annual leave, increasing by a day each year up to a maximum of 30 days

an extra day off for the King's birthday

an in-year bonus scheme to recognise high performance

career progression and coaching, including a training budget for personal development

a focus on wellbeing with access to an employee assistance programme

job satisfaction from making government services easier to use and more inclusive for people across the UK

advances on pay, including for travel season tickets

death in service benefits

cycle to work scheme and facilities

access to an employee discounts scheme

10 learning days per year

volunteering opportunities (5 special leave days per year)

access to a suite of learning activities through Civil Service learning

Any move to Government Digital Service from another employer will mean you can no longer access childcare vouchers. This includes moves between government departments. You may however be eligible for other government schemes, including Tax Free Childcare. Determine your eligibility at <https://www.childcarechoices.gov.uk>

Office attendance

The Department operates a discretionary hybrid working policy, which provides for a combination of working hours from your place of work and from your home in the UK. The current expectation for staff is to attend the office or non-home based location for 40-60% of the time over the accounting period.

DSIT does not normally offer full home working (i.e. working at home); but we do offer a variety of flexible working options (including occasionally working from home).

Things you need to know

Artificial intelligence

Artificial intelligence can be a useful tool to support your application, however, all examples and statements provided must be truthful, factually accurate and taken directly from your own experience. Where plagiarism has been identified (presenting the ideas and experiences of others, or generated by artificial intelligence, as your own) applications may be withdrawn and internal candidates may be subject to disciplinary action. Please see our candidate guidance \(opens in a new window\) for more information on appropriate and inappropriate use.

Selection process details

The standard selection process for roles at GDS consists of:

- a simple application screening process - We only ask for a CV and cover letter of up to 500 words. Important tip - please ensure that your cover letter includes how you meet the skills and experience listed in the person specification section above
- a 60-minute video interview

Depending on how many applications we get, there might also be an extra stage before the video interview, for example a phone interview or a technical exercise.

While we value the use of AI technology to enhance our daily work, we also value the personal touch and urge applicants to write cover letters without the use of AI to emphasise their own unique experiences.

In the event we receive a high volume of applications, we will conduct the initial sift against the lead criteria which is:

- someone who can produce key documentation and reports - including briefing papers, planning data, and governance materials to support programme performance and accountability

In the Civil Service, we use Success Profiles to evaluate your skills and ability. This gives us the best possible chance of finding the right person for the job, increases performance and improves diversity and inclusivity. We ll be assessing your technical abilities, skills, experience and behaviours that are relevant to this role.

For this role we ll be assessing you against the following Civil Service Behaviours:

- working together
- changing and improving
- communicating and influencing
- managing a quality service

We ll also be assessing your experience and specialist technical skills against the following skills defined in the Government Digital and Data Capability Framework for the Digital Portfolio Analyst role

- Agile Working
- Communicating Analysis and Insight
- Governance and Assurance
- Planning
- Stakeholder Relationship Management
- Strategic Thinking

Recruitment Timeline

Sift completion: 29/05/2026

Panel interviews: W/C 08/06/2026

Candidates that do not pass the interview but have demonstrated an acceptable standard may be considered for similar roles at a lower grade.

A reserve list will be held for a period of 12 months, from which further appointments can be made.

The Civil Service is committed to attract, retain and invest in talent wherever it is found. To learn more please see the Civil Service People Plan and the Civil Service D&I Strategy.

Sponsorship

DSIT cannot offer Visa sponsorship to candidates through this campaign. DSIT holds a Visa sponsorship licence but this can only be used for certain roles and this campaign does not qualify.

Feedback will only be provided if you attend an interview or assessment.
