The Role

Please note this role requires you to pass Security Check clearance. Please click on the link for details.

We're recruiting for a Senior Product Manager here at Justice Digital, Data and Science to be part of our warm and collaborative Identity and Access Management team in Technology Services

This role aligns against Senior Product Manager from the Government Digital and Data Framework

In Technology Services we deliver the core infrastructure, services and technologies that enable Digital Infrastructure and Security Operations (DISO) and End User Compute Services (EUCS). We design, build and support user-centred digital and technology services for the justice system: services that make a real difference to our staff, members of the public and their families who use them. We have a number of roles across different product spaces, ranging from build and iteration of transformed services to managing legacy services as we look towards decommissioning.

Identity and Access Management is transforming the way that staff and end users access MOJ information and systems. Our mission is to ensure that users have the right access to the right information at the right time ensuring that we balance the user experience with best practice security principles. Through our strategy and continual improvement culture, we're reducing cyber risk and enhancing trust in our digital infrastructure to make a real difference to staff and system owners. We're looking for a Senior Product Manager who is passionate about delivering quality services and can shape the bigger picture. In this role, you'll influence IdAM's Service Strategy, driving impactful change and helping us achieve our vision.

Senior Product Managers (SPMs) are responsible for overseeing the quality and value realisation of several products (or exceptionally, one complex product). Senior Product Managers take responsibility for the end-to-end, cross-platform user experience of multiple products. This will be across the product lifecycle from discovery, through development, delivery, continuous improvement and to product retirement.

SPMs also lead and manage people and support the development of our Product Communities. They ensure that all of the Product Managers under their leadership are supported, coached, developed and managed and so that they can reach their full potential.

You'll receive a range of excellent benefits when you join our department, including:

A generous employer pension contribution of 28.97% through the Civil Service Pension Scheme.

25 days of annual leave, (increasing to 30 days once you have reached 5 years of service), plus 8 bank holidays and a privilege day for the King's birthday.

Flexible working arrangements including hybrid working, working part time or compressed hours. Designed to support a positive work-life balance.

Employees are allocated 10% of their working time for personal and professional development.

A £1k per person learning budget is in place to support all our people, with access to best-in-class conferences and seminars, accreditation with professional bodies, fully funded vocational programmes and e-learning platforms.

Compassionate maternity, adoption, and shared parental leave policies, with up to 26 weeks leave at full pay, 13 weeks with partial pay, and 13 weeks further leave. And maternity support/paternity leave at full pay for 2 weeks, too!

You can find more details of the Benefits we offer here. To help picture your life at MoJ Justice Digital, Data and Science please take a look at our blog.

Key Responsibilities:

The SPM has deep knowledge of Product Management techniques and is developing expert skills. The SPM is experienced in overseeing multiple products and has a proven track record of managing products through the different stages of the product life cycle (products taken to beta/live). SPMs ensure the quality and the value of the work of Product Managers and the rest of the delivery team.

The SPM manages the strategic roadmap, working with Delivery Managers to ensure that resources are aligned to the highest priority initiatives. They will be responsible for ensuring that all changes to the strategic roadmap are captured, justified and communicated to stakeholders. This includes taking a leading role in governance forums such as IDAM Programme board and the Tech Services Service Alignment forums

SPMs lead the assurance of scope, providing direction to meet user needs for multiple products & channels, aligned with strategy. They champion user needs with senior stakeholders, influencing and challenging Policy in relation to changes within the Product/service, to enable user requirements to be met.

SPMs are strategic leaders, ensuring that the scope and direction of the development and continual improvement of several products align with strategies (e.g. Government, policy, digital) in delivery, acting as the escalation point when needed, and taking action to resolve issues that delay delivery.

SPMs are active and visible leaders, supporting the PMs and working with the Lead PM in defining product strategy for all their products, building interpersonal relationships and actively influencing and challenging strategy & stakeholders to enable user needs to be met.

SPMs are compassionate, inclusive and lead by example, actively promoting and engaging in self-development; coaching and mentoring their product people and investing in their development to ensure they reach their full potential.

SPMs support and inspire the PM community, wider delivery team & MoJ colleagues, bringing them into the product vision, leveraging existing relationships to best effect; prompting difficult decisions. SPMs interact with x-Gov product activity to develop a wider view of products and services across Government, and spotting opportunities for collaboration.

SPMs define user journeys where relevant and the direction of user research, empathising with users, translating relevant findings with teams and sharing insights with stakeholders.

SPMs ensure that all products meet policy intent, acting as an advocate for the digital transformation of services and influencing policy change, within and outside of MoJ. SPMs understand the political landscape so they can support PMs in explaining constraints and enable them to be challenged.

If this feels like an exciting challenge, something you are enthusiastic about, and want to join our team please read on and apply!

Selection process details

How to Apply

In Justice Digital, Data and Science, we recruit using a combination of the Government Digital and Data Profession Capability and Success Profiles Frameworks. We shall assess a combination of your Experience, Technical skills and Behaviours during the assessment process.

Stage 1 - Application and sift:

To apply for this position, you must submit the following as part of your application CV and Personal Statement:

A CV detailing your career history (including any relevant qualifications). Your CV will be assessed against the essential criteria outlined within the Person Specification of this advert.

A Personal Statement(no more than 800 words) which should outline your experience and skills, giving clear examples of work undertaken. It should specifically address the following 5 criteria listed below, using a separate paragraph for each.

1. Identity and Access Management
2. Product Management
3. Strategic Ownership
4. Agile and lean practices
5. Stakeholder relationship management

A diverse sift panel will review the information in your CV and Personal Statement to assess the sift criteria specified above. We operate an anonymous shortlisting process. Please ensure your CV and Personal Statement do not include your name or any other identifying details.

Should we receive a high volume of applications, a pre-sift based on Identity and Access Management and Product Management will be conducted before the sift.

Please access the following link for guidance on how to apply - Application Guidance

Stage 2 - Interviews:

Successful candidates who meet the required standard will then be invited to a panel interview held via Microsoft Teams. At interview stage, you will be assessed against the following Success Profile elements - Experience, Technical and the following Behaviours:

- Leadership

- Making effective decisions

- Working together

- Changing and Improving

- Developing Self and Others

As part of your interview, you will be asked to deliver a presentation that assesses your technical capability. Further details will be provided if successful at sift.

Appointments are made strictly in merit order. In the event that two or more candidates receive identical interview scores, your Technical experience in Identity and Access Management will be applied as the primary lead criterion to determine the final merit order.

Should you be unsuccessful in the role that you have applied for but demonstrate the capability for a role at a lower level, we reserve the right to discuss this opportunity with you and offer you the position without needing a further application.

A reserve list may be held for up to 12 months, from which further appointments may be made.

Use of Artificial Intelligence

Artificial Intelligence can be a useful tool to support your application, however, all examples and statements provided must be truthful, factually accurate and taken directly from your own experience. Where plagiarism has been identified (presenting the ideas and experiences of others, or generated by artificial intelligence, as your own) applications may be withdrawn and internal candidates may be subject to disciplinary action. Please see our candidate guidance for more information on appropriate and inappropriate use.

Feedback will only be provided if you attend an interview or assessment.

Security

Successful candidates must undergo a basic (or equivalent) criminal record check.

Successful candidates must meet the security requirements before they can be appointed. The level of security needed is security check \(opens in a new window\).

See our vetting charter \(opens in a new window\).

People working with government assets must complete baseline personnel security standard \(opens in new window\) checks.

This job is broadly open to the following groups:

- UK nationals

- nationals of the Republic of Ireland

- nationals of Commonwealth countries who have the right to work in the UK

- nationals of the EU, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein and family members of those nationalities with settled or pre-settled status under the European Union Settlement Scheme \(EUSS\) \(opens in a new window\)

nationals of the EU, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein and family members of those nationalities who have made a valid application for settled or pre-settled status under the European Union Settlement Scheme (EUSS)

individuals with limited leave to remain or indefinite leave to remain who were eligible to apply for EUSS on or before 31 December 2020

Turkish nationals, and certain family members of Turkish nationals, who have accrued the right to work in the Civil Service

Further information on nationality requirements \(opens in a new window\)

Working for the Civil Service

The Civil Service Code \(opens in a new window\) sets out the standards of behaviour expected of civil servants.

We recruit by merit on the basis of fair and open competition, as outlined in the Civil Service Commission's recruitment principles \(opens in a new window\).

The Civil Service embraces diversity and promotes equal opportunities. As such, we run a Disability Confident Scheme (DCS) for candidates with disabilities who meet the minimum selection criteria.

The Civil Service also offers a Redeployment Interview Scheme to civil servants who are at risk of redundancy, and who meet the minimum requirements for the advertised vacancy.

Diversity and Inclusion

The Civil Service is committed to attract, retain and invest in talent wherever it is found. To learn more please see the Civil Service People Plan \(opens in a new window\) and the Civil Service Diversity and Inclusion Strategy \(opens in a new window\).
