Hybrid Working

Ready to make a real difference? Join us at the Money and Pensions Service (MaPS) as our E Learning Developer. This is your chance to play a meaningful role in helping people across the UK build stronger financial futures and to do it as part of a supportive, energetic team.

Why this role matters?

The eLearning Developer will play a key role in the delivery of the Money Guiders eLearning Transformation Project, a time-bound programme delivering a major migration of the existing eLearning catalogue to a new learning platform and authoring environment, primarily Articulate Rise, with completion planned by mid-2027.

This significant transformation programme will modernise and enhance a learning portfolio comprising more than 34 modules, over 20 hours of learning content, assessments, multimedia assets and supporting resources, while improving learner engagement, accessibility, quality and consistency.

Working as part of the Learning Design team, the postholder will support the review, redesign, redevelopment, testing and quality assurance of learning content and assets. They will contribute to improving the learner experience, ensuring content meets accessibility standards, reflects current best practice in eLearning, and aligns with agreed build and quality standards.

The role is focused on the hands-on development and delivery of eLearning content and will work closely with the Project Manager, Learning Designers, Digital Learning Coordinator, Subject Matter Experts and other stakeholders. The postholder will help ensure the successful and timely delivery of the transformed catalogue, supporting the programme's objectives and contributing to the launch of a modernised eLearning offer.

The role supports a national training offer delivered to a wide network of external organisations and practitioners across the UK, designed to improve their understanding, skills, and confidence

Job description

eLearning Content Review and Transformation

- Review existing learning content and supporting assets to identify opportunities for improvement.
- Rebuild existing learning content using Articulate Rise and other agreed authoring tools.
- Apply defined design standards, templates, brand and build guidelines to ensure consistency across the catalogue.
- Implement approved changes relating to content accuracy, accessibility, learner engagement and experience.
- Update assessments, knowledge checks, scenarios and learner resources.
- Support the migration of content from legacy platforms and authoring tools into the new learning environment.
- Produce and maintain supporting documentation including storyboards, content mapping documents and build records.
- Ensure all output aligns with agreed learning objectives and learner needs.
- Create engaging eLearning experiences using a range of authoring tools and digital media.

Format and structure content effectively for online delivery.

Source, adapt and manage approved visual assets, using Photoshop and Illustrator to create, edit and optimise eLearning graphics and media.

Apply accessibility good practice, including alternative text, appropriate colour contrast, clear navigation and screen reader compatibility.

Support the implementation of branding standards across all eLearning products.

Work alongside specialist providers and colleagues where new assets such as graphics, animations or media are required.

Collaboration and Delivery

Work collaboratively within the project team to deliver agreed priorities and deadlines.

Liaise with Learning Designers, SMEs and reviewers to gather feedback and implement required updates.

Participate in content reviews, project meetings and quality checkpoints.

Follow agreed project processes, version control requirements and ways of working.

Contribute ideas for improving learning content and eLearning experiences.

Provide regular updates on progress, risks and delivery requirements

Quality Assurance and Continuous Improvement

Complete quality assurance reviews of eLearning content against agreed standards.

Support accessibility and usability reviews of eLearning products.

Test learning content across different devices and platforms to identify issues prior to release.

Resolve defects and implement feedback arising from internal review and testing activities.

Maintain high standards of quality, accuracy and consistency across all learning outputs.

Stay up to date with developments in eLearning design and learning technologies.

Person specification

Essential

1. Demonstrable experience developing, building and maintaining interactive eLearning content using Articulate 360, with strong hands-on expertise in Articulate Rise.
2. Proficiency in Adobe Creative Cloud applications, particularly Photoshop, and Illustrator to create, edit and optimise eLearning assets.
3. Experience applying instructional design principles to transform existing content into engaging, accessible and learner-centred learning experiences.
4. Knowledge of eLearning standards and accessibility requirements, including WCAG, with experience implementing accessible and inclusive design practices in online learning content.
5. Experience working collaboratively with project teams, subject matter experts and stakeholders to deliver high-quality eLearning content, with strong organisation skills, attention to detail and the ability to manage competing priorities to agreed deadlines.

Desirable

1. Experience working in a regulated, educational, public sector or professional development environment.
2. Experience using Adobe Premiere Pro to edit and optimise video and audio content for eLearning.
3. Familiarity with LMS/LXPs and digital learning technologies, including an understanding of SCORM, xAPI, cmi5 and other learning standards

Flexible Working
At MaPS, we take pride in our flexible approach to work. As standard, we work on a hybrid basis with a minimum of 2 days in the office per month. Hybrid working is a voluntary, non-contractual arrangement and our headquarters in Bedford will be your contractual place of work. The number of days that anyone will be able to work at home will be determined primarily by business needs, but personal and other relevant circumstances will also be considered. If you are successful, any opportunities for hybrid working, including whether a hybrid working arrangement is suitable for you, will be discussed with you prior to you taking up your post.

Career Development
In MaPS, we take career development seriously. We actively encourage and support applications from our existing MaPS colleagues. However, we do follow the Civil Service Commissioner recruitment principles, which means that you will be required to participate in a full, open, and fair process.

Reserve List
If you are successful at interview, we operate a reserve list where your details will be held for up to 6 months. Should a vacancy come available in that time with the same essential criteria, reserve list candidates will be offered that position with no further assessment required.

Things you need to know

Artificial intelligence

Artificial intelligence can be a useful tool to support your application, however, all examples and statements provided must be truthful, factually accurate and taken directly from your own experience. Where plagiarism has been identified (presenting the ideas and experiences of others, or generated by artificial intelligence, as your own) applications may be withdrawn and internal candidates may be subject to disciplinary action. Please see our candidate guidance (opens in a new window) for more information on appropriate and inappropriate use.

Selection process details

The law requires that selection for appointment to the Civil Service is on merit on the basis of fair and open competition as outlined in the Civil Service Commission s Recruitment Principles. If you feel your application has not been treated in accordance with the Recruitment Principles, and you wish to make a complaint, in the first instance, you should contact the Money and Pensions Service via email: recruitment@maps.org.uk. If you are not satisfied with the response you receive from the Department, you can contact the Civil Service Commission: Visit the Civil Service Commission website.
