The Role

We're recruiting for Content Designers here at Justice Digital, Data and Science. We're looking for skilled people to create clear, user-centred content across our digital services. With several roles available, this is a great opportunity to work on meaningful, high-impact services that support justice services and improve user experience across government.

This role aligns against Content Designer from the Government Digital and Data Framework.

You ll receive a range of excellent benefits when you join our department, including:

A generous employer pension contribution of 28.97% through the Civil Service Pension Scheme.

25 days of annual leave, (increasing to 30 days once you have reached 5 years of service), plus 8 bank holidays and a privilege day for the King s birthday.

Flexible working arrangements including hybrid working, working part time or compressed hours. Designed to support a positive work life balance.

Employees are allocated 10% of their working time for personal and professional development.

A £1k per person learning budget is in place to support all our people, with access to best-in-class conferences and seminars, accreditation with professional bodies, fully funded vocational programmes and e-learning platforms.

Compassionate maternity, adoption, and shared parental leave policies, with up to 26 weeks leave at full pay, 13 weeks with partial pay, and 13 weeks further leave. And maternity support/paternity leave at full pay for 2 weeks, too!

You can find more details of the Benefits we offer here. To help picture your life at MoJ Justice Digital, Data and Science please take a look at our blog.

If this feels like an exciting challenge, something you are enthusiastic about, and want to join our team please read on and apply!

The Civil Service is committed to attract, retain and invest in talent wherever it is found. To learn more please see the Civil Service People Plan and the Civil Service D&I Strategy.

Salary Information

Base salary for this role is London: £49,325 - £53,081, National: £42,914 - £46,182.

New entrants to the Civil Service joining the MoJ are expected to start at the minimum of the pay band.

Existing Civil Servants moving on a level transfer will retain their current base salary or move to the minimum of the pay band for the role, whichever is higher.

Existing Civil Servants who are promoted will either move to the bottom of the new grade's pay band or receive a 10% uplift, whichever provides the greater increase.

The final offer will reflect the skills and experience you demonstrate during the assessment process.

How to Apply

In Justice Digital, Data and Science, we recruit using a combination of the Government Digital and Data Profession Capability and Success Profiles Frameworks. We shall assess a combination of your Experience and Behaviours during the assessment process.

Stage 1 - Application and sift:

To apply for this position, you must submit the following as part of your application:

A CV detailing your career history (including any relevant qualifications).

A Personal Statement (no more than 500 words) which should outline your experience and skills, giving clear examples of work undertaken. It should specifically address the following criteria listed below which are being assessed at the sift stage -

Create, improve and publish high quality, user-centred content.

Make complex language and processes easy to understand.

Identify important stakeholders and communicate with them clearly and regularly.

A diverse sift panel will review the information in your CV and Personal Statement to assess the sift criteria specified above. We operate an anonymous shortlisting process. Please ensure your CV and Personal Statement do not include your name or any other identifying details.

Should we receive a high volume of applications, a pre-sift based on the following criteria will be conducted before the sift -

- Create, improve and publish high quality, user-centred content.

- Make complex language and processes easy to understand.

- Consistently and effectively apply content standards and style guidelines to your work.

Please access the following link for guidance on how to apply - Application Guidance

Stage 2 - Interviews:

Successful candidates who meet the required standard will then be invited to a panel interview held via Microsoft Teams. At interview stage, you will be assessed against the following Success Profile elements Experience and the following Behaviours:

- Communicating and influencing

- Working together

- Changing and improving

- Delivering at pace

Interviewees will also be asked to complete a task in advance of their scheduled interview date. They will then need to present their findings during their interview. Details of this task will be shared with those invited to attend an interview.

Appointments are made strictly in merit order. In the event that two or more candidates receive identical interview scores, the create, improve and publish high quality, user-centred content criterion will be applied as the primary lead criterion to determine the final merit order.

Should you be unsuccessful in the role that you have applied for but demonstrate the capability for a role at a lower level, we reserve the right to discuss this opportunity with you and offer you the position without needing a further application.

A reserve list may be held for up to 12 months, from which further appointments may be made. Applicants receiving alternate offers via the reserve list may be offered a position with different vetting requirements, depending on business need.

Use of Artificial Intelligence

Artificial Intelligence can be a useful tool to support your application, however, all examples and statements provided must be truthful, factually accurate and taken directly from your own experience. Where plagiarism has been identified (presenting the ideas and experiences of others, or generated by artificial intelligence, as your own) applications may be withdrawn and internal candidates may be subject to disciplinary action. Please see our candidate guidance for more information on appropriate and inappropriate use.
