Head of Data Ethics and Literacy Hub

Location: National*

Closing Date: 24th August 2026

Interviews: Week commencing 7th September 2026

Grade: Grade 6

(MoJ candidates who are on a specialist grade, will be able to retain this grade on lateral transfer)

Salary: National £71,381 - £80,419 London £75,674 - £85,257

Working pattern: full-time, part-time, flexible working

Contract Type: Permanent

Vacancy number:

*We offer a hybrid working model, allowing for a balance between remote work and time spent in your local office. Office locations can be found ON THIS MAP

Please note that unless you are an existing member of staff at Justice Digital, Data and Science, the only London location being recruited to is 10 South Colonnade, E14 4PU. We are no longer recruiting to 102 Petty France, SW1H 9AJ.

The Role

We're recruiting for a Head G6 Data Ethics and Literacy Hub here at Justice Digital, Data and Science to be part of our warm and collaborative team.

This is an exciting, high profile and key role within heading up our growing Data Ethics and Literacy Hub. The mission of the hub is to build trust and confidence in how the MoJ uses data and AI by strengthening data literacy skills and embedding ethical principles into data and AI work across the organisation.

You will be leading and setting out the future direction of a growing multidisciplinary team of data ethicists and literacy professionals who provide operational, coordination and engagement across the organisation on data ethics and literacy. A big part of the role will be providing leadership to enable the strengthening of organisational engagement, culture change and visibility of data ethics and literacy.

You will be joining at a pivotal moment where the wider directorate and division is growing and the opportunities, innovation and complexities of the things data and AI forward teams are delivering and transforming across Justice is happening at pace. The Data Ethics and Literacy team will be key to enabling success in this space and your leadership will be essential to maturing, refreshing and continuing to embed the MoJ AI & Data Science Ethics Framework and the hub's data literacy offer whilst building a collaborative, enthusiastic, supportive and high performing environment to do so.

You will receive a range of excellent benefits when you join our department, including:

A generous employer pension contribution of 28.97% through the Civil Service Pension Scheme.

25 days of annual leave, (increasing to 30 days once you have reached 5 years of service), plus 8 bank holidays and a privilege day for the King's birthday.

Flexible working arrangements including hybrid working, working part time or compressed hours. Designed to support a positive work-life balance.

Employees are allocated 10% of their working time for personal and professional development.

A £1k per person learning budget is in place to support all our people, with access to best-in-class conferences and seminars, accreditation with professional bodies, fully funded vocational programmes and e-learning platforms.

Compassionate maternity, adoption, and shared parental leave policies, with up to 26 weeks leave at full pay, 13 weeks with partial pay, and 13 weeks further leave. And maternity support/paternity leave at full pay for 2 weeks, too!

You can find more details of the Benefits we offer here. To help picture your life at MoJ Justice Digital, Data and Science please take a look at our blog.

Key Responsibilities:

Strategic leadership:

Provide leadership, oversight and set direction for the Data Ethics and Literacy Hub and its people.

Oversee the implementation, maturity and iteration of the MoJ AI and Data Science Ethics Framework across MoJ's Service Transformation Group and agreeing expectations more widely across the organisation, Justice Data and other priority areas.

Be an authoritative voice on data ethics and literacy advocating for and championing the work of the hub, including delivering the mandatory use of the MoJ AI and Data Science Ethics Framework and promotion of the right culture to raise awareness of ethical considerations and increasing data literacy across the organisation and its partners.

Act as a trusted advisor to senior colleagues, ministers and across our partners on data ethics and data literacy.

Play an active role in the Senior Management Team within the Deputy Director for Prisons Data area (who acts as sponsor for the hub) and across MoJ, including the Service Transformation Group and Justice Digital, Data and Science Directorate.

Develop the ability for horizon scanning and strengthening links with cross-government partners within the hub to enable it to keep pace and ideally ahead of change given the speed at which AI, data science and technology develops.

Line management:

Provide day to day line management of 2x Grade 7s who lead the hub (currently 5x SEOs with a view to growing the hub significantly this year) and support their development as well as providing oversight, support, advice and an escalation route for the operational and strategic work of the hub.

Create and maintain a collaborative and supportive environment where the hub leads and their teams work together and are encouraged and enabled to work collaboratively across the Directorate and organisation.

Provide leadership and line management of data ethicists and data literacy professionals and support their professional development and growth.

Act as G6 head of profession for Data Ethics and Literacy.

Stakeholder engagement and advocacy:

Build and maintain trust with teams, senior colleagues and ministers across digital, data, AI and science areas as well as with wider policy and operational colleagues.

Promote and champion the importance of data literacy and data ethics to support the embedding of high-quality data practices and knowledge and ethical data approaches to a range of areas including AI, technology and wider policy and operational topics and teams.

Play an active role in cross-government forums and groups promoting and contributing to data ethics and literacy considerations and building networks with cross-government partners and groups.

Lead in any cross-directorate conversations on behalf of the hub on future iterations of the hubs operating model, structure and remit as the directorate grows and matures.

If this feels like an exciting challenge, something you are enthusiastic about, and want to join our team please read on and apply!

Person Specification

Essential

Experience leading, developing and managing multidisciplinary teams including supporting well being, performance and professional development

Experience and knowledge of building collaborative teams, ways of working and driving delivery ideally in a data related context.

Experienced in setting a strategic direction and vision and winning support for and articulating these across directorates, teams and at organisational level.

New entrants to the Civil Service joining the MoJ are expected to start at the minimum of the pay band.

Existing Civil Servants moving on a level transfer will retain their current base salary or move to the minimum of the pay band for the role, whichever is higher.

Existing Civil Servants who are promoted will either move to the bottom of the new grade's pay band or receive a 10% uplift, whichever provides the greater increase.

How to Apply

In Justice Digital, Data and Science, we recruit using a combination of the Government Digital and Data Profession Capability and Success Profiles Frameworks. We shall assess a combination of your Experience, Technical skills and Behaviours during the assessment process.

Stage 1 - Application and sift: To apply for this position, you must submit the following as part of your application.

A CV detailing your career history (including any relevant qualifications). Your CV will be assessed against the essential criteria outlined within the Person Specification of this advert.

A Personal Statement (no more than 1000 words) which should outline your experience and skills, giving clear examples of work undertaken. It should specifically address the following criteria listed below, using a separate paragraph for each.

Experience leading, developing and managing multidisciplinary teams including supporting well being, performance and professional development.

Experience and knowledge of building collaborative teams, ways of working and driving delivery ideally in a data related context.

Experienced in setting a strategic direction and vision and winning support for and articulating these across directorates, teams and at organisational level

Working knowledge and experience of applying Data Ethics considerations across data and AI contexts or championing and delivering improvements in data literacy across organisations and teams.

A diverse sift panel will review the information in your CV and Personal Statement to assess the sift criteria specified above. We operate an anonymous shortlisting process. Please ensure your CV and Personal Statement do not include your name or any other identifying details.

Should we receive a high volume of applications, a pre-sift based on the below criteria will be conducted before the sift.

Experience leading, developing and managing multidisciplinary teams including supporting well being, performance and professional development.

Experience and knowledge of building collaborative teams, ways of working and driving delivery ideally in a data related context.

Please access the following link for guidance on how to apply - Application Guidance

Stage 2 - Interviews:

Successful candidates who meet the required standard will then be invited to a panel interview held via Microsoft Teams. At interview stage, you will be assessed against the following Success Profile elements - Experience, Technical and the following Behaviours:

Leadership

Seeing the big picture

Making effective decisions

Communicating and influencing

Appointments are made strictly in merit order. In the event that two or more candidates receive identical interview scores, the Leadership behaviour will be applied as the primary lead criterion to determine the final merit order.

Should you be unsuccessful in the role that you have applied for but demonstrate the capability for a role at a lower level, we reserve the right to discuss this opportunity with you and offer you the position without needing a further application.

A reserve list may be held for up to 12 months, from which further appointments may be made.
