About the job

Job summary

As Head of Physical Security Advisory, you ll lead Parliament s physical security advisory team, ensuring the delivery of expert, risk-based security advice that helps keep Parliament safe and operational. You ll oversee security risk assessments, develop security standards and guidance, and act as the senior adviser on major estate programmes and projects, including high-profile transformation initiatives.

Job description

You ll work closely with senior stakeholders across Parliament, government departments, security partners and project teams to identify risks, design effective security solutions and support informed decision-making. Leading a team of security professionals, you ll build capability, drive continuous improvement and ensure Parliament s approach to physical security remains responsive to emerging threats, technologies and best practice.

As a member of the Parliamentary Security Department s Senior Leadership Team, you ll also contribute to the wider strategic direction of security services across Parliament.

This role is offered on a hybrid working basis, with an expectation of you spending 60% of your time in the office.
